III. THE RULES OF DOCTORAL TRAINING AND DEGREE ACQUISITION

Organizational framework of doctoral training and degree acquisition

The University Doctoral and Habilitation Council (EDHT)

6. §

(1) According to the provisions of Gov. Decree 387/2012 Section 9 § (2) and Section 22, the EDHT has the following responsibilities:

k) It makes decisions on the removal of students from the enrolment list, which can be delegated to the doctoral school council;

(15) Appeals against decisions of the EDHT can only be initiated in cases of violation of this regulation and/or legal violations. Appeals must be submitted to the Rector within 15 days from the date of the alleged legal violation or regulation breach. The Rector must make a decision on appeals within 30 days.

Student status

17. §

(1) A person who has been admitted to the organized doctoral program (hereinafter referred to as the doctoral student) holds student status for the duration of the program. The student status lasts continuously or with interruptions for 48 months. In the doctoral program, the academic year's autumn semester runs from September 1 to January 31, and the spring semester runs from February 1 to August 31.

(2) Student status terminates:

a) if the doctoral student fails to pass the comprehensive examination on the day of the obligation's failure or unsuccessful completion (Nftv. 59. § (1) point j));

b) at the end of the eighth semester of the doctoral program to which the student registered (Nftv. 59. § (1) point l));

c) at the end of the semester in which the student obtains the absolutory

(3) The higher education institution can unilaterally terminate the student status of a student who:

a) does not fulfil obligations related to academic progress as specified in the academic and examination regulations or the curriculum [training plan],

b) fails to register for the next academic semester for the third consecutive time,

The reason for the decision is that since the beginning of the student's training period, she has demonstrated ethically reprehensible behaviour, which has made it impossible for her to fulfil her obligations to progress in her studies and to provide her by the Doctoral School Council with an internal supervisor for the semesters starting in September 2024 and beyond.

Details of the decision are set out in the attached cancellation letter.
