Resolution No. 209/3: The Council of the Doctoral School of Applied Informatics and Applied Mathematics recommends the EDHT (University Doctoral and Habilitation Council) that Ágnes Győrfi, doctoral student, be awarded a summa cum laude doctoral degree in computer sciences, in recognition of her performance in her public defense, which was graded at 97%.

Resolution No. 209/4: The Council of the Doctoral School of Applied Informatics and Applied Mathematics recommends that Prof. Dr. Tamás Ferenci be elected as a core member of the Doctoral School in the research field of mathematics and computing.

Resolution No. 209/5: Kaziwa Hassan Saleh, PhD student, submitted a request to the Doctoral School to postpone the initiation of the doctoral degree acquisition process by one year for family reasons. The Council of the Doctoral School of Applied Informatics and Applied Mathematics approves the request.

Resolution No. 209/6: Zsolt Bringye, PhD student, submitted a request to the Doctoral School to change both his doctoral research topic and his supervisor, as the newly proposed topic fits his recent research activities better and he has a closer working relationship with the newly proposed supervisor. The title of the new research topic: “Security analysis of LPWAN protocols by developing anomaly detection methods.”

Both former supervisors, Prof. Dr. Miklós Kozlovsky and Dr. Kinga Farkas, and the newly proposed supervisor, Dr. habil. Rita Fleiner, agreed to the request.

The Council of the Doctoral School of Applied Informatics and Applied Mathematics approves the request.

Resolution No. 209/7: In the case of the comprehensive (or complex) examination of Dániel Küttel, PhD student, in the subject entitled “Soft computing techniques and their applications”, Dr. Balázs Tusor will be the examiner instead of Prof. Dr. Annamária Várkonyiné Kóczy. The Council of the Doctoral School of Applied Informatics and Applied Mathematics approves the change.

Resolution No. 209/8: Unfortunately, one of the reviewers and one of the external members will not be able to participate in the public defense committee for Lehel Dénes-Fazakas, PhD student. The Council of the Doctoral School of Applied Informatics and Applied Mathematics approves the following changes in committee members:

- External Reviewer: Dr. Tamás Ruppert (University of Pannonia) instead of Dr. Iclănzan David Andrei (Sapientia Hungarian University of Transylvania)
- External Member: Dr. Judit Szűcs (University of Pannonia) instead of Dr. Zoltán Szántó (Sapientia Hungarian University of Transylvania)

Resolution No. 209/9: The Council of the Doctoral School of Applied Informatics and Applied Mathematics puts forward the initiation of the habilitation procedure to the MTTDHT (Doctoral and Habilitation Council for Engineering and Natural Sciences) in the case of Dr. Béla András Frigyik PhD and proposes the following committee:

Expert Evaluation Committee (includes the Habilitation Examination Committee):

EEC (and HEC) Chair: Prof. Dr. Márta Takács (OE)
HEC Member: Prof. Dr. Tibor Illés (Corvinus University of Budapest)
HEC Member: Prof. Dr. Miklós Pintér (Corvinus University of Budapest)
EEC Member: Prof. Dr. Zoltán Kánnai (Corvinus University of Budapest)
EEC Member: Dr. Attila Andai (BME)
EEC Member: Dr. László Hanka (OE BGK)
Substitute Member: Prof. Dr. András Recski (BME)
